ENABLING/REGULATING AUTHORITY

Federal/state law(s), administrative ruling(s), Manatee County Comp Plan/Land Development Code, ordinances, resolutions, policy)

Section 3B 2.2.3, Comprehensive Plan - Relationship to Land Development Regulations developed pursuant to 163-3202 F.S.

BACKGROUND/DISCUSSION

- The Florida Planning and Zoning Association (FPZA) is a statewide non-profit organization comprised of people dedicated to planning and developing a quality Florida. It was formed to "furnish a medium for interchange of information and mutual assistance among those interested in planning and zoning".
- As members of the FPZA, the Board of Zoning Appeals and Planning Commission will benefit from participation in a Florida professional organization dedicated to seeking solutions to Florida's planning and zoning problems. They will receive the FPZA Newsletter, the OVERVIEW special reports and publications, be able to attend FPZA seminars and conferences and actively participate in Local Chapter activities.
- The cost is $30.00 for each membership; therefore, the total for seven Board of Zoning Appeals members and the seven Planning Commissioners will be $420.00.
