Background Discussion

In August 2019, the Lakewood Ranch High School Drama Team will perform and represent Manatee County at FRINGE, the world's largest performing arts festival in Edinburgh, Scotland.

Out of hundreds of applications nationally, the Lakewood Ranch High School Drama Team was the only team in our region to be selected. Accomplishing this international production will not only enhance the students' skills as performers, technicians, and marketers, but will also deepen their understanding of the vital role the arts play in education around the world.

Please consider supporting Lakewood Ranch Drama Team as they perform on the international stage!

In August 2019, the Lakewood Ranch High School Drama Team will embark on an opportunity of a lifetime!

We have been invited to perform and represent Manatee County at FRINGE, the world's largest performing arts festival in Edinburgh, Scotland. Out of hundreds of applications nationally, we are the only team in our region that was selected.

Accomplishing this international production will not only enhance our students' skills as performers, technicians and marketers, but will also deepen our understanding of the vital role the arts play in education around the world.

Please consider supporting our team as we represent Manatee County on the international stage!
