

RESOLUTION R-04-121

A RESOLUTION OF MANATEE COUNTY, FLORIDA, AUTHORIZING THE COUNTY'S CONSULTING ENGINEERS TO PROVIDE BINDING TESTIMONY IN COURT CONCERNING THE CONSTRUCTION OF THE COUNTY'S TALLEVAST ROAD PROJECT BASED ON THE CONSTRUCTION PLANS AND MODIFICATIONS THERETO IN THE CASE OF MANATEE COUNTY v. ELIAS B. GADAH, ET AL., CASE NUMBER: 2002-CA-464, PARCEL 127

WHEREAS, the Board of County Commissioners has heretofore approved the scope and construction of the Tallevast Road project identified in the Capital Improvement Plan; and

WHEREAS, the parcels acquired by the County through eminent domain proceedings were necessary for the construction of Tallevast Road; and

WHEREAS, in the eminent domain case of Manatee County v. Elias B. Gadah, et al., Case Number: 2002-CA-464, Parcel 127, it is necessary for the County's consulting engineers to provide binding testimony in court concerning the construction and improvements to Tallevast Road based on the construction plans and modification thereto in order to satisfy certain legal requirements under Florida law.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED AS FOLLOWS:

1. The Manatee County Board of County Commissioners hereby authorizes the County's consulting engineers to provide binding testimony in court in the case of Manatee County v. Elias B. Gadah, et al., Case Number 2002-CA-464, Parcel 127, concerning the construction and improvements to the County's Tallevast Road project based upon the construction plans and modifications thereto.

DULY ADOPTED with a quorum present and voting this 4th day of May, 2004.
