Re:
Myakka City Community Center Portable Building/
Donation to The Myakka Family Worship Center

Dear Manatee County Commissioners-

The Myakka Family Worship has been providing much needed meeting space to several individual 4-H clubs, and Cub Scouts each month. In addition many community groups use the facility as well. We have also provided several out reach programs such as: free school supplies, free clothes and food pantry to our local community for several years.

Each year, the number of people requesting the use of the current building and the outreach services increases. It is our mission to provide assistance to every individual living within the Myakka City community.

In order to fulfill our mission, we need more space. To get the space we need to serve the community fully, we need your help. Please consider making a donation of the building formerly used by the Myakka Community Center located on Wauchula Road to The Myakka Family Worship Center.

The Myakka Family Worship Center is a 501C3 nonprofit organization

We appreciate your time, effort and consideration in granting this request.
