Dear Ms. Judy Berisford:

My name is Diana Morgan, VP – Marketing & Outreach for Reliable Business Solutions, a non-profit, 501(c)3, with our Corporate Office located at 417 Gaston Drive, Orlando, FL 32808.

Our Mission is to help Florida's families and individuals, particularly those with very low to moderate-income, reach an adequate and equitable standard of living by providing the necessary resources and services that address immediate needs and result in self-sufficiency. We provide counseling services to all 67 counties in Florida.

We are very grateful for the donation we received in August 2015, of desks and laptop computers, and four iPad in August 2015. Even though some did not work, the ones that did were very helpful to our team. We thank you so much. We are requesting your assistance, again, in donating any desk and laptop computers to be use to help us provide our services to residents of Manatee County.

If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to give me a call (407) 432-3248 or email Diana.Morgan@reliablebusinesssolutions.org. I have included a copy of our 501(c)3 certification for your review.

Thanking you in advance for your immediate attention to this request.

Sincerely,

Diana Morgan

Dear Applicant:

Based on information you supplied, and assuming your operations will be as stated in your application for recognition of exemption, we have determined you are exempt from federal income tax under section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code as an organization described in section 501(c)(3).

Because you are a newly created organization, we are not now making a final determination of your foundation status under section 509(a) of the Code. However, we have determined that you can reasonably expect to be a publicly supported organization described in sections 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi).

Accordingly, during an advance ruling period you will be treated as a publicly supported organization, and not as a private foundation. This advance ruling period begins and ends on the dates shown above.

Within 90 days after the end of your advance ruling period, you must send us the information needed to determine whether you have met the requirements of the applicable support test during the advance ruling period. If you establish that you have been a publicly supported organization, we will classify you as a section 509(a)(1) or 509(a)(2) organization as long as you continue to meet the requirements of the applicable support test. If you do not meet the public support requirements during the advance ruling period, we will classify you as a private foundation for future periods. Also, if we classify you as a private foundation, we will treat you as a private foundation from your beginning date for purposes of section 507(d) and 4940.

Grantors and contributors may rely on our determination that you are not a private foundation until 90 days after the end of your advance ruling period. If you send us the required information within the 90 days, grantors and contributors may continue to rely on the advance determination until we make a final determination of your foundation status.

If we publish a notice in the Internal Revenue Bulletin stating that we
